Welcome | tawâw

Prince Albert National Park is located on Treaty 6 territory, the lands of the nîhithaw (Woodland Cree), nêhiyawak (Plains Cree), Dene, Dakota and the homeland of the Métis. These lands and waters have been cared for by Indigenous peoples for generations and continue to be used and protected today.

We recognize the shared responsibility for the stewardship of the land and waters. Do your part to protect this special place.

Stay Safe and Protect Wildlife

- Keep a safe distance from all wildlife. If an animal notices you and changes its behaviour by lifting its head, looking at you or listening to you, you are too close and should back away.
- Travel in groups and make noise to let wildlife know you are nearby.
- Late summer and early fall is elk and bison mating season; be especially aware of wildlife along trails at this time.
- If you encounter elk, moose or bison on a trail, let them know you're there by singing a song or whistling a tune. Walk slowly around them at a safe distance or return the way you came.
- Do not feed wildlife; they have a greater rate of survival and are healthier when they eat natural food.
- Keep your pet on a leash and under physical control at all times. Dogs can provoke defensive behaviour in bears and other wildlife.
- Know what to do when you see a bear. Read the Black Bear Country brochure for more information on bears and how to prevent an encounter, available at any park facility.

Camping

Keep campsites clean. This means scented items or food are never left alone, even for a minute. Leaving scented items out puts visitors and wildlife at risk and can result in a fine.

Backcountry Camping

Campgrounds are equipped with picnic tables, pit toilets, firewood, fire pits and caches for securing wildlife-attractants.

All overnight visitors, including for random backcountry camping, must register at the Visitor Centre before leaving for the backcountry. Sites are first come, first served.

Fees: Backcountry fees apply to all overnight backcountry stays.

- Safety:
- Check the weather, trail and fire conditions before heading into the backcountry.
 - Pack appropriate equipment, extra drinking water and food in case you're out longer than anticipated.
 - Before your trip, please read the Black Bear Country brochure.
 - Take navigation tools and a first aid kit.
 - REMEMBER – cell phone coverage varies throughout the park. Do not rely on it.
 - Share a trip plan with trusted friends or family.

Help Protect Park Waters

Mandatory Aquatic Invasive Species (AIS) Watercraft Certification Permit

All watercraft must have a mandatory AIS watercraft certification permit before entering Prince Albert National Park waters to help stop the spread of AIS.

This includes motorboats, canoes, kayaks, stand-up paddleboards, wind surfing boards and rowboats.

Pick up your free AIS watercraft certification permit at an entry gate, the visitor centre, marina or a self-certification station at a boat launch or day-use area.

Watercraft used outside of Saskatchewan in the past 45 days must undergo inspection and/or decontamination to meet permit conditions.

parks.canada.ca/princealbert-aquatic

Make clean, drain, dry a habit everywhere you go! Clean, drain and dry all watercraft and water-related gear, including trailers, fishing gear, personal flotation devices, wetsuits, paddles and beach toys.

Picnic and Beach Areas

HEAD FOR THE BEACH!

- Waskesiu Beach
- Birch Bay
- South Bay
- Paignton Beach
- Point View
- Trippes Beach

Look for the Picnic Area and Picnic Shelter icon for more picnic areas and beaches in the park.

All pets must be on leash and under physical control at all times. Dogs are allowed on most beaches, except for those with buoyed swimming areas.

Trails

Hiking

Want to learn more about the natural world around you? Take a self-guided tour with a brochure available at the Treebeard trailhead, learn from the interpretive exhibits at Boundary Bog or attend an interpretive program.

Biking

On trails, eBikes need to be in the pedal assist mode and must not have a switch to select motor only mode.

Highway #263 lends itself naturally to bike touring. This quiet, paved roadway is jam-packed with scenic diversity. Wear bright clothing and make yourself visible to motorists.

On roadways, eBikes can be in motor only mode. Provincial laws must be followed. For more information, please consult sgi.sk.ca/recreational-vehicles.

Fishing

Prince Albert National Park fishing licenses are available for purchase at the Visitor Centre, entry gates, campground kiosks or any of the marinas.

Contact the Visitor Centre to learn more about lake trout fishing regulations and to pick up your lake trout endorsement tag.

Horseback Riding

Escape the hustle and bustle of the daily grind along one of our horse-friendly trails.

Bring your own horse or contact the Visitor Centre for information on horseback riding outfitters in the surrounding area.
