

Parc national de
Prince Albert

Prince Albert
National Park

Threads of Tradition Series: Cree Crafting Workshops

Join local Cree artists Candace and Cree Longjohn, for a series of workshops. All levels of experience welcome. Spots are limited, pre-register today!

Cost: $39.79 per person - a valid park pass is required.

What's included: The expertise of the facilitators, the materials, and bannock and wild tea.

Register in person at the Visitor Centre or by phone at 306-663-4522.

Beaded Mini-Mukluks

Saturday November 25th
and
Saturday December 9th

1pm to 4pm

at the Prince Albert National Park
Visitor Centre in Waskesiu Lake

Make a mini pair of mukluks as an ornament, keychain, or gift for a loved one!

Mukluks, the traditional winter footwear of the North, have been a beautiful and cozy way to stay warm and fashionable during the winter season.

Porcupine Quill Earrings

Saturday December 2nd

1pm to 4pm

at the Prince Albert National Park
Visitor Centre in Waskesiu Lake

Create a beautiful, custom pair of quill earrings. Quills were harvested traditionally, sustainably, and ethically.

Porcupine quills have been used to adorn various accessories, clothing, and baskets for time immemorial.

Parcs
Canada

Parks
Canada

Canada